

Elective Teacher: Electives are taught each afternoon for two hours, Monday through Thursday. Topics are interdisciplinary and provide academic opportunities for students to explore a topic in depth. Past electives have included, rocketry, 2D3D design, music, and social justice. Completion of three years of college preferred, knowledge and proven ability in the subject area are required, experience working with high school students is preferred. Valid driver's license (no moving violations for the past two years) preferred. This position is residential, Sunday evening through Friday afternoon. Preference will be given to candidates who have personal experience with, or understanding of, the challenges faced by low income students who will be the first in their families to attend college.

Sample Job Description

1. Develop curricula and teach required classes.
2. Prepare a comprehensive syllabus to be distributed to students on the first day of class.
3. Work individually with those students who need individualized instruction.
4. Complete a final evaluation for each student.
5. Supervise SAT prep, UB reading program, wellness activities, and evening study sessions.
6. Serve as an Advisor. Plan and implement advisor group activities.
7. Drive students to and from career sites.
8. Supervise bedtime hours when called upon and sleep in the residence hall except on weekends and nights off.
9. Participate in and help initiate non-academic Upward Bound activities.
10. Be available to students during their free time for companionship, support and positive role modeling.

TO APPLY: Submit cover letter, resume, transcript and contact information for two references to Lynn Ploof-Davis, Director of TRIO Programs, University of Maine at Farmington, 207-778-7297, lynnp@maine.edu.

The summer program begins June 17 and continues through August 2. Hiring begins immediately, applications accepted until all positions are filled.

